When you or a family member get sick, you want help fast.

Nurse24SM

The help you need to make the right decisions about your healthcare

Highly trained and experienced Registered Nurses take your call

Now you can call toll-free and speak with a specially trained, compassionate nurse anytime, night or day, whenever you have a health concern. Our nurses are qualified to offer support and information that will help you make more informed health decisions.

24/7 health counseling, education and help with symptom identification

When you speak with a nurse, he or she will ask you questions about your condition such as medications you might be taking, allergies, levels of pain and more. The nurse will evaluate your symptoms, provide an assessment, educate you about your condition and help you take the most appropriate action right then and there.

From general health, wellness and medical information to triage of urgent issues, Nurse24 staff will help you make the most informed decisions about what to do. If it's an emergency, the nurse will tell you what steps to take immediately, and follow up later to see how you're feeling.

Comprehensive support tools help our RNs guide you to the best care

Our Nurse24 team utilizes the nationally accredited Healthwise® Knowledgebase. This database provides a resource for more than 4,000 health topics. Its active medical advisory board reviews and updates guidelines and protocols to provide you with the most up-to-date information. More information on any topic you've discussed with the nurse can be sent to you. Simply ask.

Nurse24 is a valuable health benefit
